Dear Dr Page:

I like your book and use them but the people of my church do not even read their own church literature and I would not be able to dispose of an assignment, good as they are.

Sincerely

Rev John Wesley Hart

Nov 12th 1946.

Mr. Kirby Page:

Dear Friend:

Thank you for honoring me in the idea expressed in your communication. I think it is fine and your books are so good and fill a needed want. But it will be impossible for me to do this myself now. However I will take it up at once with my group of the council and I believe we can do something. I will write you in a few days. Pardon the card. God bless you in your work. sincerely. In His name

November 1, 1946.

Mr. Kirby Page,
In care of Mr. Edwin Custer,
Sheboygan at Marr Street,
Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

Dear Mr. Page:

It was a pleasure to hear your able address a few nights ago at the First Methodist Church in Evanston, and to observe the skilful way in which you answered questions.

We would like to invite you to offer a course in the Garrett summer school for 1947. We have two five-week terms in the summer. The first term in 1947 will run from June 23 to July 25, and the second from July 28 to August 29. You could make your selection between them.

Each teacher offers one course, which meets for two consecutive 55-minute periods per day for four days a week, Tuesday through Friday. There are no classes from Friday noon till the following Tuesday morning. This would mean that you would have a considerable portion of each day and your entire week-end free.

We would like to have you offer a course on "International Relations and the Christian Message" or some similar subject. We hope to have James Dombrowski and also Ira Reid on our summer faculty; I believe you know them both.

Usually there are about seventeen instructors in each of the two terms, most of them invited from outside of the regular school faculty. The school is conducted on an interdenominational basis and people come from all sections of the country. Further, it is a graduate school. About half of the students are seminarians; the others are ministers, teachers, and missionaries who have returned for a refresher course. Visiting instructors of other years have termed it the most stimulating school in which they have taught. I know that you could make an excellent contribution to their thinking and hope that you can come.

We can pay a stipend of $450.00 plus accommodations in the dormitory where we house summer faculty. I wish it might be more, but we keep our fees at a low point so that even ministers with small incomes can attend.

I will appreciate hearing from you as soon as convenient, and trust that your reply may be favorable.

With best wishes, I am

Faithfully yours,

Dear Folks:

The plates came back yesterday seems that they paid no attention to the forwarding in Los Angeles so will send them again with one of our labels on, to you at Sheboygan, Wisc.

We are having a nasty Santa Ana this morning wind is blowing hard and the dust about as bad as I have ever seen it.

Yesterday morning Margaret and I watched a big fox across the canyon and this morning we saw two of them and watched them for a while.

Grandma better then she has been in a long time eats anything without any apparent ill effects. Ate lime pie, salmon loaf and pork & beans yesterday and didn't bother her.

Gene and Perry working on the little limes now hope to get thru today. We sure had a lot of dead wood.

Margaret picked two of the persimmons on the tree that doesn't usually have any. I think there was four or five and these two are soft and very large. G-ma is eating one and Margaret the other. I think there will be plenty of them when you get home.

Orders coming in from the letter we have been mailing. Get some out everyday. The package of letters I sent you came back so will send some more.

Affectionately,

Mae,

MY PRAYER

GOD, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Monday - 7:30 p.m. - The regular monthly meeting of the Church Board of Deacons and Deaconesses in the church social rooms.

Tuesday afternoon - Monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Church Guild in the Marr Street Parlor of the church.

Tuesday -- 7:45 p.m. - A Community Meeting at the Division Street Methodist Church to hear Kirby Page - world traveler, author of many books. Topic, "What Can Churches Do About War?" Mr. Page is an able speaker and in great demand.

We are anxious to have as many of our members as can possibly come, to hear and meet Kirby Page. Following his message there will be an opportunity to ask him questions. He is as able as any speaker we have had on our public forum platforms. At noon, on Tuesday, he will address a group of business men at luncheon, on the subject, "Must We Fight Russia?"

Wednesday - 7:30 p.m. - Church Choir Rehearsal in the church parlors. Mrs. P. L. Schultz, director, is hoping to start with some special numbers for Thanksgiving and for the month of December. But you know the old story, - No players, no football team; no fingers, no hands; no singers, no chorus choir. So come if can and like to sing.

Last Week - Packets for Offering Envelopes for the new fiscal year of our church were mailed out to all who expressed a desire to use them for their weekly contributions.

If you did not receive such a packet but would like to make use of one, please, stop at the Literature Table as you leave the service this morning and you will be supplied with one. By using these envelopes you help the work of the church and you lighten the task of our church treasurer. Stop for yours.

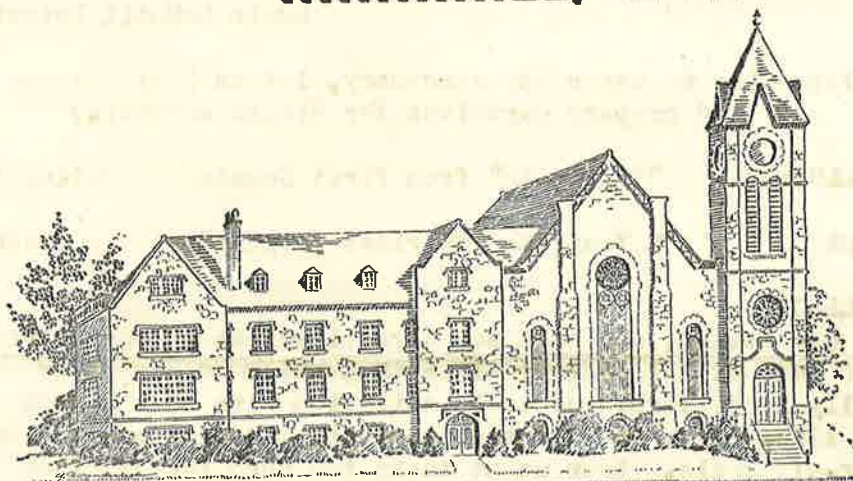

Next Sunday - Following the Morning Church Service you will be asked to remain for a few minutes to help select of appoint a Nominations Committee which will be asked to make a report at the Annual Business Meeting of the Church next month, Thursday, December 5.

HYMN "O Young and Fearless Prophet" Page 266

COLLECT

Our Father, who hast set a restlessness in our hearts, and made us all seekers after that which we can never fully find; forbid us to be satisfied with what we make of life. Draw us from base content, and set our eyes on far-off goals. Keep us at tasks too hard for us, that we may be driven to thee for strength. Deliver us from fretfulness and self-pity; make us sure of the goal we cannot see, and of the hidden good in the world. Open our eyes to simple beauty all around us, and our hearts to the loveliness men hide from us because we do not try enough to understand them. Save us from ourselves, and show us a vision of a world made new. May thy Spirit of peace and illumination so enlighten our minds that all life shall glow with new meaning and new purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Choral Amen

The Pastor's Word

Today we have as our guest, Dr. Kirby Page, who is an outstanding author in the field of Social and Christian relationships. His insistence upon applying the principles of the teachings of Jesus to all human relationships has given him a place in the leadership of the church and of international relationships that is unique. He is the author of twenty-four books, the last of which is "Now is the Time to Prevent a Third World War." As your Pastor, it affords me very great satisfaction to present him to this morning's congregation.

Dear Dr. Page:

You will remember that I talked to you at the close of your speech at the First Methodist Church here in Evanston last week. You took one of the PETITIONS calling for a World Constitutional Convention with you and said that you would return it to us if you possibly could.

We are very eager to get the backing of as many religious leaders throughout the country as possible. We realize that your words carry great weight in religious circles throughout the country and that your approval would add greatly to our work. We urge you again to throw the weight of your influence behind this petition, along with Henry Hitt Crane, E. Stanley Jones, and Georgia Harkness., Bishop Oldham, and other religious leaders.

In case you misplaced the petition I gave you last week, I shall inclose another one for you, in addition to a stamped and self-addressed envelope. Your immediate reply will be very greatly appreciated.

Most cordially,

James Whitehurst, chairman,
Church-Relations department.

Dear Dr. Page:

Your letter of Oct. 25, to Mr. Davidson has been turned over to me.

We are looking forward to having you and Mrs. Page in Great Falls on Thursday, Nov. 21. We are arranging three meetings for the day. A luncheon meeting with the Ministerial Association. An afternoon session and an evening meeting open to the public. The luncheon meeting will be at the Park Hotel and we will be honored to have Mrs. Page present. The afternoon and evening meetings will be in the First Methodist Church, at 3:00 P.M. and 7:30 P.M. We are arranging the noon luncheon for 12:15 P.M. We have reserved a room for you and Mrs. Page for that day and night at the Park Hotel.

Could you let me know how you are traveling and when you expect to arrive in Great Falls, so that I can meet you? Also, I would like to have "cut" to use for newspaper publicity.

The subjects that have been selected for you to speak on are:- "How to be Transformed Through Prayer" -- Afternoon
"Must We Fight Russia?" -- Evening
You are to select your own topic for the noon luncheon.

I remain, trusting that we have made all the necessary arrangements.

Most cordially yours,

Hunter McKain.

Kirby Page To Be Speaker At Kiwanis Meeting Thursday

Kirby Page, nationally known and prominent author and lecturer, will discuss the timely subject of "Must We Fight Russia?" at the regular noon dinner meeting of the Kiwanis club at the Foeste hotel Thursday.

Mr. Page is now on a tour which will take him into all 48 states, and in Wisconsin he is being sponsored by the Wisconsin Council of Churches. He is a world traveler and a trained observer of national and international affairs, and judging by his experience and also by the comments of those who have had the opportunity of hearing him, his discussion of the subject should be very interesting.

He is the author of 22 books and numerous pamphlets and magazine articles, and his books and pamphlets have been translated into 10 languages. He has spoken at 400 colleges and universities throughout the United States and foreign lands and has preached in a thousand churches of 20 denominations in all parts of the nation, and has conducted one-day confer-

Dear Dr. Page:

I wish to again thank you for the very wonderful address that you gave at the Kiwanis Club here in Fond du Lac a few days ago. I had hoped to be able to contact you personally before you left the city but due to the pressing business, I was unable to do so.

We are enclosing a check which we hope you will accept as a small token of our appreciation for the talk which you gave us. We realize that this in no way begins to compensate you for the program such as the one you gave us, but I know that you realize the funds of service clubs are quite limited and we are not able to pay you any ways near what we would like to.

Mr. Wagner, the President of the Club, has also asked me to convey his thanks and appreciation for your appearance here, and many members of the club have also stated that they felt that this was one of the outstanding programs the Kiwanis have been able to put on.

Proposed Procedure

OFFERING OF COURSES IN RELIGION, FEBRUARY, 1947

- 1) The Religious Council of Pasadena Junior College through its constituent groups proposes to sponsor a series of courses in religion to be offered for the semester beginning February 3, 1947.
- 2) It is suggested that each course be offered on a two-hour basis, Tuesday and Thursday, the time to be determined by each organization for its respective course.
- 3) Such courses will be given off the campus and will not carry credit toward graduation from Pasadena Junior College.
- 4) It is contemplated that the courses be organized on an upper division level and offered in such a manner that they may be accepted for credit toward graduation from certain church-related and private colleges and universities upon the certification of satisfactory work by the Curriculum Committee of the Religious Council.
- 5) It is proposed that a request be made to have the courses to be offered by the several religious organizations listed on the Counsellor's Sheet -- such listing to be under a special "Religious Council" section. The listing would include a course number, a course name, the sponsoring organization, and the instructor's name; time and place.
- 6) It is proposed that a request be made to have entered on the student's permanent record at the Junior College a notation of completion and grade of such courses offered by the Religious Council upon the certification by the Curriculum Committee of the Religious Council to the Dean of Records of satisfactory work.
- 7) It is recommended that this proposed procedure be presented to the Administrative Staff for their approval or suggested revision and referred back to the Curriculum Committee to the Religious Council.

Mr. Kirby Page
La Habra

Dear Mr. Page:

We were very, very pleased to receive your telegram that you will be able to come to the South Central Jurisdictional Young People's Leadership Conference next summer August 5th to 15th, 1946. I have just returned to the office from being gone several days, which accounts for my delay in answering your reply.

We have in our church several of these Jurisdictional Young People's Leadership Conferences and we consider them to be among the best things we do for the young people of the Methodist church. To this Conference to which you will come, come only officers of Annual Conferences, Districts and Sub-Districts; no local church officers attend. They have a schedule which includes the "Quest Hour" in the morning, a series of courses which are both enrichment and training courses, a series of well-planned interest groups in the afternoon and evening schedules of varied activities. These Jurisdictional training conferences help the patterns and the attitudes for work back in local conferences and district so much so that everything we do in these Jurisdictional training conferences we want to be of the highest type in enrichment and training.

Your help in the Conference will be that of a series of addresses in what is known as the "Quest Hour", which follows breakfast in the morning from 8:30 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. The opening part of this hour will be worshipful but brief and will be led by young people themselves. Following the "Quest Hour" to 9:35 a.m. there will be a period for personal meditation by the young people.

The theme of the Conference is: "Stewards of the Kingdom". This was chosen partly because of the stewardship phase of the Crusade for Christ in the Methodist Church, which will be given special emphasis in the year beginning in the fall of 1946. Therefore, we seek to train some of our youth officers and leaders next summer in the meaning of "stewardship". The Planning Group, which by the way, is made up mostly of youth, plus the Dean and one or two other adults and myself as the National Staff Representative, want you as the speaker in the "Quest Hour" to use the theme "Stewards of the Kingdom" as the theme of your addresses. They are very anxious to have some real meaning put into the terms "stewardship" and "kingdom". We are very sure that you will be able to give some real meaning to these terms which are important in the work of the church and the kingdom. I would say, therefore, that you would have a maximum of one-half hour each morning for nine mornings; that is: Tuesday through Saturday and Monday through Thursday in the period August 5th to 15th.

As plans develop and publicity is released for this Conference, we will keep you more fully informed. In the meantime, any questions you have about the Conference and your place in it, please feel free to raise with us. As stated in the telegram, we will pay your travel expenses to the Conference, your expenses at the Conference, that is board and room, and an honorarium of $50.00.

Thank you again for your acceptance of our invitation.

Very sincerely yours,

Joseph W. Bell

Another War Is Inevitable Unless Russian Policy Is Changed, Says Kirby Page

World War III is inevitable unless the United States succeeds in bringing about a "moderating change in Russia's present war-making policy," Kirby Page, distinguished author and lecturer, told Sheboygan Kiwanians Thursday.

Speaking at the Kiwanis club's weekly luncheon meeting in the Hotel Foeste, Mr. Page, in Wisconsin on one lap of a nation-wide speaking tour, brilliantly analyzed the plight of current American relations with Russia. His appearance in the state is being sponsored by the Wisconsin Council of Churches.

Mr. Page is no cynic, but he sees little cause for optimism in scanning the international horizon.

Only One Hope

Of one thing he is certain. A continuation of the current armaments race between the principal powers of the world is the surest and quickest way to an atomic war — a war that may well blow the world out of existence.

"The one hope for survival," Mr. Page declared, "is to convince the Russians that capitalism is not trying to destroy communism. America can't accomplish its aim with words alone. It must convince them by its behavior.

"We must look on the people of Russia as God's people — people created in the image of God. We must recognize them as brothers and sisters of our own. We must go to them and say, 'We face you with concern for your well being. What do you need?'"

The Russians, he said, need plenty. Their industry, their villages, their people have been ravaged by a war that plunged them into a 679 billion ruble debt. They need relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction, a higher standard of living, and, more than that, they need to be delivered from the continual horror and fear of war.

Suggests Loan

"Russia must have increased productivity within its borders and America must realize it. The United States should, if it has the wisdom and courage, make the same loan to Russia that it made to Britain, and tell them: 'Here, use this for machinery to re-establish your industry, feed your people, lift your standard of living.'"

"We must realize that this, of course, will increase our own peril, but we must do it anyhow. It will make Russia stronger, yes, and she may use that extra strength to hit us all the harder.

"This, then, is our dilemma. Either we must run the risk of an armaments race which will surely lead to another war, or we must run the risk of building up their strength with our eyes wide open. We must establish right relations with Russia or we'll fight a third world war."

No Guarantees

Mr. Page admitted that his solution to the present hostility between Russia and the United States carries with it no guarantee of success.

Describing the Russian policy as both "aggressive and threatening," the speaker offered four factors to explain the Russian attitude:

(1) The nature of membership in the communist party. The party, he said, is led by a group of zealous exponents of that way of life who believe in it with an intensity and practise it with a "sacrificial devotion." As a result, the government is bound to be one which "cares about the spread of the faith they believe superior and preferable."

(2) Russians place a premium on materialism, believe that the only way to accomplish their purposes is with "brute might."

Fear of U. S.

(3) Their arrogance and contempt has produced a recklessness. The leaders know that communism is going to increase in strength and that capitalism is becoming weaker and digging its own grave. It is a dogmatic conviction, Mr. Page said, that has been carried to the point where they don't doubt it.

(4) Much of Russia's aggressions has been propelled by a deadly fear of the United States which has been created by the "irreconcilable" conflict between capitalism and communism, by the invasion of foreign troops in Russia after World War I, by the long period of Russian ostracism, and by the atomic bomb which shattered their hopes of security.

Because of this "obsession" of capitalist fear, Russia wants to make its army as big and powerful as it can, it wants to strengthen its navy and air force to a point where it can wage war against a British-American coalition if necessary.

Seeks Domination

The speaker interpreted Russia's insistence for buffer states on her border as "part of her struggle for power," and said she is seeking to dominate all of southwestern Europe, the Far East and the European continent in that struggle.

"If that policy is not changed — there won't be any doubt about it — war will be the result. And it will be a war of atom bombs, bacteria, of disease germs and concentrated poisons."

Pointing an alarming finger to the expenditure of 11 billion U. S. dollars this year for armaments, Mr. Page said the nations of the world by 1956 would have invested 200 billion dollars in preparing for fighting another war.

"These," he reminded his audience, "are weapons of annihilation that will be capable of blowing the world into disintegration."

Armament Race "Fatal"

Three out of four people in America, he said, think the solution is perfectly plain. If Russia wants to play the game of brute force, they reason, we'll play it that way, too. We'll keep our bases, renew our alliances with Britain, create a world-wide coalition against Russia. If 11 billion dollars a year for our armed forces isn't enough, we'll spend more.

But Mr. Page hoisted a storm warning. A race for preponderance of power, he said, would be "suicidal." He admitted that the problem was the most difficult situation ever confronting any population.

As an alternative to the "insanity of a race for world dominance," he offered the only hope that he can see. Loan Russia money for its own reconstruction, strive to get agreements with Russia to forestall a wild armament race, establish "right relations" with Russia, and then hold our collective thumbs.

"A slight possibility is all we've got to avoid World War III. But that possibility constitutes the only remaining hope for our civilization."

Mr. Page was introduced by a personal friend, the Rev. T. Parry Jones of the Kiwanis program committee. C. F. Blake, club president, presided.

Within the top soil, myriads of tendrils and thumb-thick legions move . . . Downward with pick and long-handled spade, straining at a massive rock and heaving it thirty inches up and over the edge, you find underneath, broad as a timberman's wrist an ancient fundament of root. Spading is useless. A pick is no good. Only a mattock will touch that toughness and let you pass . . . In every foot are scores and hundreds of searching, persistent, darkness-dwelling emissaries of life . . . If they came upward, no plant would live. Shade, food, gorgeous beauty, structural strength, heat for oven and hearth are given because down under are the unknown, the unlighted ones at work . . . My Dear Dr Page:

Here is a little confession: I am really stealing your wisdom in my sermons on the general heading, "What is God doing now".

Your book, The will of God for these days, is too irresistible. It answers the questions in so many minds. People do not know how to ask this question, but you will be interested in one woman's reaction when she received word her boy was killed in the war. "Why does not God do something. He sits there and does nothing." The extremists had wrung the real question which is the question of so many. You have enabled me, at least, to answer it. Thanks and forgive me for plagiarizing.

You were at Tarkio College in Missouri the other day. It is quite near to me. When you are very near next time, please let me know.

Thank you again for your inspiration.

MINISTER'S MINUTE

Dear Friends:

We are happy to welcome to our pulpit Armistice Sunday, November 10, Dr. Kirby Page, internationally-known religious leader.

Armistice Sunday is being observed around the world as World Order Sunday. How altogether fitting it is to have with us that Sunday one who has twenty times traveled around the world and who is a recognized authority on the moral and spiritual implications of what is involved in a world order.

Dr. Page is the author of many books, such as, "Living Prayerfully," "Living Courageously," "Individualism and Socialism," "Living Abundantly," and many others.

Dr. Page has had many personal interviews with such world leaders as Mahatma Gandhi, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, Viceroy Lord Irwin of India, Jawaharlal Nehru, Lloyd George, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Bernard Shaw, Sir Stafford Cripps.

We sincerely welcome Dr. Page and his wife and wish them God's blessing as they devote themselves to the all-important task of arousing Christians while there is still time.

Always your friend,

Maurice L. Haehlen.

Dear Mrs. Page -

We are sorry to be so late with this but I just today received the final accounting of our Nebraska Conference Budget.

We want you to accept this small check with our very real appreciation for your willingness to help us as you did.

Please do tell Kirby how sorry I am not to have seen him too. But we did feel that he sent a worthy representative!

I hope you are both feeling well now.

Dear Mr. Page:

We thank you for sending us the information about the quantity rate on the book LIGHT IS STILL SHINING IN THE DARKNESS. These were billed to us at 50 cents each less 40% but due to the fact there is a quantity price on this book of 32 cents each on twelve or more copies to the customer it does not give the Book Store enough margin to work on to handle orders of this kind, consequently, we do not feel we will be able to promote the sale of this book in any way because of the limited discount.

Dear Mr. Page:

This is to inquire whether it will be possible for you to address a group of members of the Holliston Avenue Methodist Church, in Pasadena, after dinner on the evening of Wednesday, January 8th., 1947.

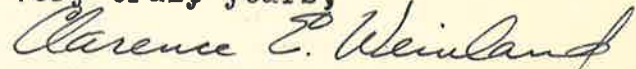

Our monthly Church Night dinners have this Winter been attended by an average of some 150 members. The January meeting will be arranged by the World Peace Committee, with the aim of bringing to our membership a balanced, Christian viewpoint on the subject of international relations. Your leadership along this line of thought is unanimously desired by our committee.

The subject of your talk should be, I believe, of your own choosing. Such titles as "Russia", "The Causes of War", "What the Common Man Can do to Further Peace", and "World Government" have been discussed by the committee, but we do not feel that we should limit your subject to one that is not at present near your heart.

Your early reply will be appreciated, and if you find that you can be with us, we would also like to know the subject that you choose to discuss. We will of course expect to tender your customary honorarium.

Trusting that you will find that you can grant our request, I am,

Very truly yours,

Clarence E. Weinland,
Co-chairman, World Peace Comm.,

"Youth, O Youth, can I reach you,
Can I speak and make you hear?
Can I open your eyes to see Me?
Can My presence draw you near?
Is there a prophet among you,
One with a heart to know?
I will flash My secrets on him,

HYMN No. 423 (second tune)

These things shall be: a loftier race
Than e'er the world hath known shall rise
With flame of freedom in their souls
And light of knowledge in their eyes.

They shall be gentle, brave, and strong,
To spill no drop of blood but dare
All that may plant man's lordship firm
On earth, and fire, and sea, and air.

Nation with nation, land with land
In-armed shall live as comrades free,
In every heart and brain shall throb

WORSHIP SERVICE

KIRBY PAGE MEETING - NOVEMBER 14, 1946

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

7:30 P.M.

PRELUDE:

CALL TO WORSHIP:

O come, let us sing unto the Lord:

Let us make a joyful noise unto the Rock
of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving,

And make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.

HYMN: (standing)

"From All That Dwell Below the Skies"

#17

RESPONSIVE READING: (standing)

Leader: In the last days it shall come to pass that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains.

All: It shall be exalted above the hills: and the people shall flow unto it.

Leader: Many nations shall come, and say, "Come,
and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob."

All: He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths; for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Leader: He shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off,

All: They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks,

Leader: Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

All: They shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree.

Leader: None shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

All: For all people will walk, every one in the name of his God, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

Leader: Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

All: But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for behold I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

Leader: And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

All: And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them,

Leader: They shall not build, and another inhabit; and they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of My people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

All: They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

Leader: And it shall come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

All: The wolf and the lamb shall feed together and the lion shall eat straw like a bullock; and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, saith the Lord.

Executive Secretary Pacific Northwest
6917 S. E. Holgate Ave.
Portland 6, Oregon

November 15, 1946.

Mr. Kirby Page,

La Habra, California.

Dear Kirby:-

Plans so far worked out are for Station KXL on the Council of Churches at 1:30 November 30th. Ministers and others have balked so much at the idea of a Saturday evening retreat that we are changing it for a conference with the Directors of Religious Education of the city from 6 o'clock to 9.

Sunday morning, First Christian; afternoon and evening, Vancouver Council of Churches; Monday morning, Multnomah College, Y. M. C. A. school; Monday afternoon and evening, a series of conferences, round tables, etc., in which you, Cameron Hall and J. Henry Carpenter will furnish the program, sponsored by the Council of Churches and denominational social action committees. This is quite different from the schedule you suggested, but seems to be the best we could work out under the circumstances.

As we are just getting "Heifers for Relief" under way, with splendid possibilities of a real work, we are proposing that the profits from the books which you devote to relief shall go to "Heifers" while you are here and at Vancouver where we also are just launching a campaign.

By the time you come I will have a telephone under "Heifers for Relief" and will be located at 1316 S. W. Park Ave., one door north of the First Christian Church. You have said nothing about entertainment, and I am making inquiries to see if any homes will be open for you and Mrs. Page. Please advise on receipt of this whether you wish entertainment or not. I shall first try Mrs. Parker, and then Mrs. Hungerford. At present I have no one else in mind.

Cordially yours,

Northwest Secretary.

Dear Dr. Page:

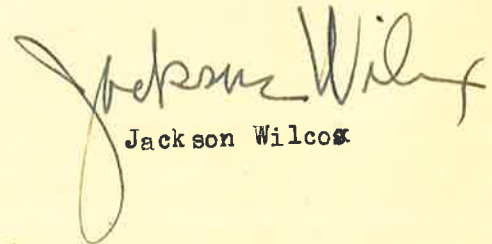

I just want to write a word of thanks for your having taken the time and trouble to spend a day in St. Paul.

I know that the day will long be remembered by those who heard you speak. I heard some very fine things from the Macalester meetings. One student commented to me that nearly everybody who speaks in chapel speaks about the atomic bomb and the need to do something about it, but he honestly felt that you are the first one this whole year who has made any practical suggestions and who has said anything worth while on the subject.

The meetings at the Methodist Church, while not largely attended, were very profitable, and it was good to be able to meet you and see you again. I hope that the time will not be too distant when our paths will cross once more.

May God bless you richly in your work.

Very sincerely,

Dear Dr. Page:

We have heard very glowing reports of the conference in Wisconsin. We are exceedingly grateful to you for arranging your schedule so that you could counsel with the students in that assemblage. We wish it were possible for you to share more of your time with undergraduates. These are days when they need counsel very badly.

I am enclosing a check for $50 for your services. I believe it was the understanding that we had with Dr. Adams that we were to pay that amount for your honoraria.

Thank you a thousand times for the effective ministry which you are rendering in these days.

Dear Mr. Page:

You will probably not remember me, but I taught school in La Habra from 1936 to 1940; directed the Methodist Choir there; and at different times came to your home with Rev. Kent, pastor of the church.

Since that time I have been in the pastoral field, as a minister in the Church of the Brethren. I have read most of your books, and appreciate them highly. Just recently it was my good pleasure to read "The Will of God for These Days." The reading of this book raised a question which I would like to answer, and I am therefore writing you.

On page 66 of this book you use these words: "I reflect upon the fatal results of the advice given by one of our own influential representatives that Japan adopt the European practice of military conscription." Could you tell me who said that, and when? or could you tell me a book where I could find the information? If so, I would greatly appreciate it. I am enclosing a stamped envelope for your reply.

Thank you.

Dear Kirby Page:

Please accept our warm appreciation for your generous contribution to our Japanese Relief program. It is very heartening to us to receive contributions such as yours toward a program that does not have the wholehearted support of the American people. Because relief for the Japanese is not popular we have the concern to carry out a significant program in Japan.

It is our policy to encourage donors to give to the office nearest them; this would be the Southern California Branch at 426 N. Raymond Avenue, Pasadena 3, California. We are sure this will help make it possible for you to become better acquainted with the Friends' activities. However, we want you to give in the way you wish. Therefore, if you prefer to be informed of AFSC needs from only the Northern California office a card from you to this effect will be appreciated.

La Jolla, Calif.

Dear Kirby,

Under separate cover I recently returned to you four copies of your title "Now is the Time to Prevent World War Three." Enclosed is a money order for eight dollars covering sale of eight volumes @ $1.<sup>00</sup> each. Thanks for sending these volumes on consignment. I have profited by reading this book and I know those have also who bought the volume.

I wish we might have the privilege of your presence with us at West Side at one of our regular services. We always have a fine group on Wednesday evening, the occasion being one well adapted to a lecture and discussion. I understand that you are scheduled to lecture in our city early in January. Some of us will plan to take advantage of that opportunity.

Sincerely,
Neal K. McEwen.

Dear Kirby:

While I address you I hope that someone reads this before you unless you are in LaHabra !

For publicity purposes may I have a couple of glossy prints and a dozen mats. I can't get any advance publicity without the prints for the daily papers, the cuts for parish papers can come from the mats, and any extras I can return when you are here. ✓

I'm sorry to report several matters of competition. A combination of agencies is celebrating the sailing of the next contingent of missionaries and I'm told that this Sunday afternoon, Dec. 8th is the only time they could secure the Arena for such a meeting. Besides, the Methodist Men hopped onto that date when they found they could secure Henry Smith Leiper as a speaker, and they have set up a meeting around him at Trinity Church, Berkeley. There seems to be no choice but to go ahead and let those who will go where they find their keenest interest. But the competition makes it more necessary than usual to pile on the publicity.

Sincer ly,

Morning Worship

We Prepare for Worship—10:45 A. M.

Prayer Thought.

Because love has been lavished so upon me, Lord,
A wealth I know that was not meant for me to hoard,
I shall give love to those in need,
Shall show that love by word and deed,
Thus shall my thanks be thanks indeed.

The Anthem, "We Praise Thee, O God" ..... Buck

We praise Thee, O God, we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord: All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting. To Thee all angels cry aloud, The Heavens and all the Power therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry. Holy! Holy Lord God of Sabaoth. Heav'n and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory. The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee. The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee. The Holy Church thro'out all the world doth acknowledge Thee, the Father of an infinite Majesty, Thine adorable true, and only Son; Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter. Thou art the King of Glory O Christ, Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father. When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin; When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, Thou didst open the kingdom of Heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father. We believe that shalt come to be our Judge. We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood. Make them to be numb'd with Thy saints in glory everlasting. Govern them and lift them up forever. Day by day, we magnify Thee and we worship Thy name ever world without end. Vouchsafe O Lord to keep us this day without sin, O Lord have mercy upon us, O Lord let Thy mercy be upon us as our trust is in Thee. O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, Let me never be confounded.

Mr. Kirby Page
La Habra California

Dear Kirby Page:

When I was in St Paul recently I ran into several people who had attended some of your meetings and they reported you had said that compulsory military training did not stand a chance in the new Congress. A week or so ago I thought there might be some truth to this, but recent developments have completely changed my mind. The Army has been working behind the scene so carefully that now there seems to be very little question that it is sure to come up early in the session and receive considerable backing from leading Republicans as well as Truman. A meeting in which I participated in Washington last week agreed that we have our hands full if we are to be able to defeat conscription in the new Congress. At the meeting were those of us who have been working on this problem in Washington, Ray Wilson, Fred Libby, Donald DuShane of the NEA, Walter Sikes and so forth.

One reason for writing is that we are up against a real problem of the false optimism of many of our people across the country, who believe that they can rest on their oars now. This would be certain to injure our attempts to defeat conscription. In view of this, I wonder if you would be able at some point to caution people about <sup>not</sup> sitting back and assuming that the victory is won.

I am very sorry that I missed you in the Twin Cities. I hope somebody delivered my message of greeting to you. We are delighted at the good reports of the fine meetings you have been having.

I enclose a rough draft of some of the material that I am planning to include in the next issue of Conscription News.

Sincerely,

John M. Swomley, Jr.

Dr. Kirby Page

La Habra, California

Dear Dr. Page,

It was my privilege to hear your challenging message the first of this month at Bloomington, Illinois. My only regret was that so few of our people took advantage of your presence. I wish you could be given the chance to speak in many local churches so the average layman might hear you.

The ministers of Iroquois County, Illinois, sponsor each year during Lent a county wide service featuring a prominent Christian leader. This year, 1947, Dr. John Holland is to speak.

At our last meeting we talked about the challenge you gave us at Bloomington, and how we could get your message, first hand, to the people of our communities. I was requested to contact you with this invitation to speak at Watseka, Illinois for our Lenten service in 1948. Since the service is usually on Thursday evening, I would suggest either March 11, or March 18 as possible dates. If it will be possible for you to come, I would like to know also how many days you could give, either before or after the Lenten service, to speak in the local churches of the county. We would like to know what our obligations would be, and if extra time can be given, how you like to set up an agenda of speaking engagements.

I sincerely hope you will be our guest.

Yours sincerely,

Chester E. Sheldon

OUTLOOK FOR THE WINTER

(American Friends Service Committee BULLETIN, November, 1946).

Unexpectedly good crops in the four leading food-producing countries of the world - the United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia - have given some people a false sense of optimism as this winter approaches. Actually hunger is a reality for millions of people. The Copenhagen Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, held in September, made central in its report the fact that although the good harvests of this year improved the food outlook for a few months, there will be a shortage of about eight million tons of bread grain this winter.

Fragments of the World Picture.

The picture in Asia is serious. Twenty-one per cent of the Japanese are estimated to have lost their homes. Damage to Japanese cities reaches eighty per cent. Living costs have risen 350%, and in many areas the daily ration is 1200 calories.

The American Food Mission to India reports that though the well-organized food procurement and rationing system in southern India has thus far averted a serious famine, two million tons of grain are needed to meet a crisis in December, when it is estimated that remaining food reserves will be sufficient for only seventeen days.

In China the extended war, civil upheaval, inadequate and disrupted transportation, flood, famine and disease, have crippled many areas. The Director General of China's relief program was reported in the press on September fifth to have said that twenty million Chinese died from hunger within recent months.

Needs in Central Europe are critical. Lack of inter-zonal exchange in Germany makes it impossible to transport supplies from the large agricultural area under Russian control to the other zones. The influx of "Volksdeutsche" from Eastern Europe adds to the problems of food, shelter and clothing.

A medical examination of young people in Vienna, Austria, in May of this year, showed that fifty-two per cent of the girls and seventy-two per cent of the boys are in impaired health. The Allied Council for Austria reports that the 1200 calorie ration can be maintained only until the end of November. Then this year's harvests, intended as a reserve to cover any crisis that might develop after UNRRA ceases functioning, must be used.

Food and clothing shortages in Hungary are among the most critical in Europe. Fats, milk, sugar and meat are almost totally absent from the diet. Last winter the calorie ration averaged 780, though workers received 1300.

In Poland, four hundred thousand school children are without shoes. The height, weight, age ratio of children in Poland is the worst in Europe, and the number of tubercular and crippled conditions from vitamin deficiency are higher than in any other European country. Thousands live on potatoes and potato soup. Eighty thousand children are living in the ruins of Warsaw, crowded with their families into dark, damp, rat-infested cellars.

The outlying countries of Europe also face hunger, cold and discouragement. In Italy the destruction of entire villages, the lack of transportation, food deficits and advancing prices hamper recovery. Young people in the congested areas of France are seriously malnourished. A spreading plague of tuberculosis, temporary dwellings, inflation and refugee problems add to the discouragement of a war-weary people. Finland is facing the urgency of a second winter without adequate housing, and her children must be fed and clothed on a precarious budget.

Europe's coal output has deteriorated generally. Since coal is needed to operate plants producing fertilizer, agricultural and industrial recovery will both be delayed. The shortage of young men in Europe is apparent. War casualties and forced labor details have left only women and old men to do the work. Proper distribution of food is severely affected by great population shifts. Exchange and export trade is at a standstill, and internal transportation has been almost completely destroyed.

The End of UNRRA Approaches

Devastation resulting from the war was greater than expected, and the hoped-for degree of recovery has not been achieved. UNRRA goes out of existence in December, though it will continue to care for displaced persons until June 1947. Welfare work for the bewildered, crippled and orphaned children of Eastern Europe will be taken over by the Temporary Welfare Commission of the United Nations, not yet established.

An abnormally small harvest in the Ukraine excludes the possibility of adequate help from Russia. The United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia combined will have 450,000,000 bushels of grain less carry-over this year than last, though crops are at peak levels. Unless very careful management is exercised and the food resources of all countries used widely and cooperatively, the wage-earners and productive-workers of several countries will be faced with starvation this winter. Against these facts it is startling to realize that Americans are eating an average of 3360 calories per person per day. Though it is difficult to see human eagerness and individuality behind blanket figures, it lies heavily upon each of us, and upon all of us as a nation, to act upon the realization that we are our brother's keeper.

- - - - -

The following is from the November Washington Report of the Legislative Committee of the Council for Social Action of the Congregational-Christian Churches.

Food and Material Relief

Mass starvation can be avoided in 1947. At present there is no indication that it will be. UNRRA recognized that there will be continuing needs on the part of countries who have been assisted by its program but decided that some other means than UNRRA must be used. The only suggestion was that it be done partly through normal trade and international credit and partly through UN.

The basic food fact seems to be that despite favorable harvests, the bread grain needs of countries producing too little to feed their populations are still eight million tons larger than the supplies that are likely to be made available for export unless special emergency steps are taken by the "have" nations. According to experts, there will also be a shortage of fats and oils for at least three years.

The United States invested $2,700,000,000 through UNRRA and, during the last year, an estimated 230 million dollars for relief through voluntary agencies. There is real danger that many of the gains resulting from this huge investment to secure the peace will be thrown away unless methods are devised to continue the flow of U. S. food over-seas.

EVANSTON COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

1000 GROVE STREET      GRE. 7400

EVANSTON, ILLINOIS

November 29, 1946

Dr. Kirby Page
Box 247
LaHabra, California

My dear Kirby:

One of your addresses which has come back to me occasionally dealt with some such subject as "What the Church Means to Me". It seemed to me to set forth the place of the church better than anything I had heard.

The Evanston Council of Churches is now promoting a "Know Your City" School -- for more information about it see the enclosed resolution which was adopted by our Executive Committee, the plan of which we are following out religiously.

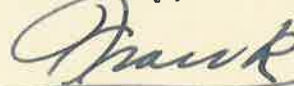

We have a committee working especially on "The Place of the Church in Evanston" but they seemed to me to be getting "nowhere fast". Therefore, I will greatly appreciate your giving me any suggestions. What do you think should be covered in that presentation? What would you add to the enclosed proposed questionnaire to be sent to the churches?

I think my own idea of what I hope the nine sessions dealing with this subject will do is to open the eyes of the church members themselves as to the significant part the church is playing in the life of the community, that it will do the same in a somewhat different way for the non-church members present in the sessions. Then I had hoped that it would show them all some possibilities which the church has not yet realized. I would hope too that it will drive home to church members what I consider their dual religious responsibility - 1) for their own church and denomination, and 2) their community responsibility and the community can be extended to include the world.

I know that you are terrifically busy, but I will greatly appreciate your help in this matter.

Trust you had a very fine Thanksgiving Day. Wayne Hanson and wife and Lilian and I had dinner together and a delightful talk fest touching both sides of the Atlantic.

Sincerely,

Executive Secretary

Dear Kirby:

I just completed the reading of your book "The Will of God for these Days." It surely is a masterly statement. I would like to send it out to my entire constituency but funds will not permit. I do, however, want to send it to twenty-four friends of mine as Christmas presents providing you can get them to me here in time to send out. So I will appreciate it if you will send me 24 copies to Room 1210, 19 South LaSalle Street, Chicago 3, Illinois. sent

Mrs. Elliott and I are leaving for California on December 9th but my secretary will be here to send the books out if they are here a reasonable time before Christmas.

I shall look forward to seeing you when I get to the Los Angeles territory in February.

Always,

Loyally yours,

"Naught Is So Sweet" ..... R. Marryott
The Sanctuary Choir

Naught is so sweet, naught is so fair.
Come, praise the love of Saviour able
To choose His birth in lowly stable.
Come and adore Him, as is meet:
Naught is so sweet.

For like the sun his way a-going,
Bright doth he shine in glory glowing.
Light of the world, He shineth there:
Naught is so fair.

Christians, the one who ruleth over
Angels, a paltry cloth doth cover.
Come, let us go and kiss His feet:
Naught is so sweet.

Tho' from His face the tears are falling,
Still to our hearts His look is calling.
Come, let us to His couch repair:
Naught is so fair,

Hear now His voice that calleth to us,
Come, holy zeal is thrilling through us;
Like to ourselves the God we greet:
Naught is so sweet.

No one there is who understandeth
All that so good a master sendeth.
Yet Him we praise, while life we bear:
Naught is so fair.

No lullaby need Mary sing for Christ
The little newborn King
The angels woke the fields of earth with song

The evening of His birth
Gloria in Excelsis Deo.
No lamp nor torch need Mary light
To chase away the shades of night,
The light of Heav'n broke on the earth
And glory shed upon that birth
Gloria in Excelsis Deo.

No tidings need she hast to send
Of this child's birth to kin or friend
The news had been proclaimed afar
That evening by a shining star
Gloria in Excelsis Deo.
No lullaby need Mary sing
For Christ the little newborn King.

Half the happiness of living
Comes from willing-hearted giving,
Comes from sharing all our pleasures,
From dividing all our treasures.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE.

"For this new world of physical power into which we are entering we must offer to others the mainstay and discipline of the principles of Christianity or risk future terrible wars of destruction from which mankind may never recover."

The above words were those of Joseph C. Grew, former under Secretary of State in Washington D.C. They are warning words, challenging words that along with the plight of our world should send every Christian to his knees in prayer to God, to pray for leaders, to pray for the world, to pray that we all may be used of God to ward off any more of wars destruction, and build a world of decency and uprightness—hence a peaceful one.

Dear Kirby:

I do not want a letter from me to break you all up. I know you have not heard from me for a long time and that I should have written before. The occasion of this letter is that I expect to be in Los Angeles around the early part of February, probably between February 6 and 11. Are you going to be there then? If so, I would welcome a chance to have a good long pow-wow with you.

My probable itinerary is enclosed in case you should be in a position to see me anywhere en route. The best of luck to you and your family.

Dear Dr. Page:

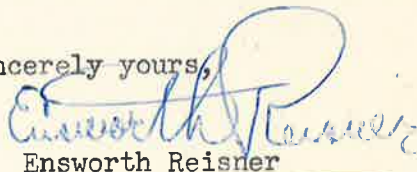

I have recently been thinking of you since I transferred from Buffalo to Milwaukee. I am most thrilled with the opportunities which are presented here in our First Church.

At the present time I am contemplating a series of Friday evening Lenten services. I wonder if there is any chance that you will be in this part of the country during the Lenten season. If so, I should very much like to have you participate in our program. In any case I would like to know when you are planning a trip in this general vicinity so that we may make some kind of arrangement to have you here.

I know that you must be doing a lot of very fine work. Your book "Now Is The Time To Prevent A Third World War" is magnificent, particularly your chapters on the atomic bomb are accurate and powerful beyond any that I have read. This is a field of study in which I have been particularly interested and I know where-withal I talk.

I reviewed your book for the Methodist Christian Advocate and I hope after I am here in First Church a little while longer and get my toes dug in I will be able to sell a substantial number of copies.

Ever sincerely yours,

Christian friends: Third session, 7:30: "Must we fight Russia".
I wish to contribute a few words on this topic somewhat different than any yet expressed, and in writing, to avoid any misunderstanding:

That newly appointed <sup>Chinese</sup> Cardinal of the Roman church upon his arrival home about three months ago was quoted by the Press in saying that "War of the Allied powers with Russia was inevitable; the sooner we are into it before they are better prepared the better it will be for us." To those who are familiar with the world plan of the Jesuit Order this bold statement of the first Chinese Cardinal is quite clear and understandable. It reveals to all such the attempted suppression of the compelling force that is embarrassing our Government in its attempt to prove to Russia our sincerity in composing our differences into a lasting peace.

Let us review briefly the record of the immediate past and learn the cause of the hostility of the Roman Hierarchy towards the Russian government:

It comes from a correspondent of the Baptist denomination who was visiting their many churches and was in Moscow when an emissary from the Pope waited upon Stalin. He pleaded for permission of the return of Jesuit missionaries to Russia. Stalin objected by saying that their teachings were for the uniting of the church and state which was against the Russian Constitution; an attempted denial was unconvincing and Stalin asked that the emissary explain the ideal form of government that would be satisfactory to the Vatican. The emissary replied by referring to the present set-up in Spain. Stalin arose, stating that this was quite enough and terminated the interview.

Upon the return of this emissary to the Vatican the San Francisco EXAMINER printed a dispatch from the Vatican stating that he had reported unfavorably to the Pope whereupon the Pope declared that "henceforth there would be continued and unrelentless open warfare against Godless Russia." Let us bear in mind that the Roman Hierarchy places every one in the same category who is NOT a member of the Roman church. The Pope does not recognize, as a fact, that Stalin some two years ago re-established without hindrance their Russian Orthodox church which, they claim, in the earlier centuries, was under the dominance of the Pope; similar to our own Protestant denominations. But the Russian Orthodox church claims relationship with the original Greek Orthodox church; that they were never under the dominance of Rome and possess a clearer line of Apostolic succession than does the church at Rome.

The Baptists have over 3,000,000 members in Russia; have never been molested because they refrain from any political discussions; other protestant denominations report progress and the increasing membership in the Russian church is most gratifying. The buildings are provided by the Government and in lieu of taxes the congregations maintain their churches and pay a nominal rental.

If war comes with Russia it will be because we Protestants have failed in our duty to study and know the truth; failed in revealing to the Roman laity in our midst who are not permitted to, know these facts as we are, but would join with us when they do know them. The world will never know an assured PEACE until the infamous JESUIT ORDER is outlawed in every country on the globe.

Dear Kirby:

Enclosed is our check and money order for forty-five dollars ($45.00) to pay for your expenses while you were with our group here at the University.

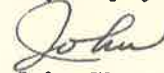

We are organizing a group to study your book, "The Will of God for our Days". We may want some additional copies of that book, but I will order them the first of the year.

I do want to tell you again of my own personal appreciation for the sharing you did with us around the basic concepts of our faith. Many of the students I know have gained new insights and have made new resolves to devote more time to meditation and prayer and to work at the task of building understanding of what it means to be a good member of God's family in the area of social responsibility.

I hope that you and Mrs. Page had a pleasant journey back home. Do keep us on the list again for a visit when you plan another trip this way.

With warmest seasons greetings.

Loyally yours,

John W. Price, Executive Secretary

Dear John and Marge:

We are just back home after an absence of twelve weeks. We had the best response of any trip we have made. But it is certainly good to get home. Had a fine visit with Kay and Epsie. They are getting a grand start. Kay thoroughly enjoys teaching and has made an excellent impression. Also had a good visit with Walt and Mary ETC. They are fixed up nicely in the new large house and are extremely fortunate to find anything so satisfactory. All of us expect to be together at Christmas. We shall be thinking and talking of you constantly.

Had an experience in Berkely that we must tell you about. In one of our meetings a highly trained soloist with a beautiful and worshipful voice sang four numbers. It was a moving experience and I kept thinking about one John Reitt! I kept saying to myself: "This is the kind of singing that John ought to be doing constantly." And I rejoiced in the realization that you are rapidly nearing the time when you will have all the reputation and means required to free you and open doors for you to use your voice, not merely to entertain, but to inspire and exalt, to stimulate and move people to nobler and more meaningful living.

Instead of singing eight shows per week, you should be using your voice in concerts and churches to arouse and move. My guess is that you will constantly be tempted to use your great talent in ways that will bring the most money. It will be easy to sign contracts that will consume you in entertaining audiences because that will bring more gain to your sponsor or employer. A wise rule for you from now on is this: Never let money be the deciding factor in determining the use of your time, energy and talent. The love of money is still the root of all kinds of evil. If you have the choice of a radio program that will enable you to sing your own selections and another one that pays twice as much but limits your power to move people, remember that the monopoly of life by money is disastrous to all higher experiences. The next years of your life should be your best, so we pray that you will not sign a long term contract that will strangle you for years to come.

The coming of your baby makes all this even more important. Even $10,000 a year net to you is all that you need for abundant living. Let your imagination soar and think of all the good you can do if you forget about money and keep yourself free to use your voice and personality in consciously directed efforts to move people to nobler living.

All this would deepen the joy of family life because you two could do so many things together. Marge's great gifts could be more adequately used if John is free to live according to judgment rather than according to contract. You have all the reputation that you need and should not wait longer to live according to your own planning, rather than to let a sponsor mold your life.

We are eager to hear more about plans for The Barber. Do bring us up to date. We expect to be here on the hilltop until March 26th and certainly hope that you come to California before that date.

We think and pray about you often. You both possess great talents and are able to make an incalculable contribution, but you are subject to much heavier temptations than most of us are compelled to face. Keep asking yourselves at every step of the way, "What does God want us to do about this?"

With deep affection,

Things I must do To day

My dear Mr. Page:

As a preliminary to further information on the subject I mentioned,- after the holiday rush,- I am enclosing some words of Lincoln to Archbishop Hughes during the darkest days of the Civil War, that will set you thinking. The booklet I am sending under separate cover re the church in Russia, by an Episcopalian from personal observation is informative. I had hoped to get a different one but find it not available. I obtained one copy for my file from the Sec. of the Russian Consulate, S.F., Written by the head of the Russian Orthodox Church it gives several pages of brutal murders in Russia by Hitler's men. I will write you further later on and do hope that it will encourage you to learn all you can about the history and purpose of the Jesuit Order. Communism is child's play as compared with what the Jesuits have done and are planning to do to destroy democracy in ever country of the world where it now exists. Cordially, FHB

Dear Friends -

I'll enclose a note with my card and thank you for the book you sent me this year - I do appreciate your sending it a lot. Ed wanted to read it so it is out there - your book Living Prayerfully is full of good reading. You must have enjoyed your trip together over the U. S. this year - we would have <sup>been</sup> delighted to have seen you. I would like for you to know my son-in-law and seeing their interesting home in the country in a unique location in these Ark. hills  $3\frac{1}{2}$  mi from Harrison. You would like Ed die he was from Houston Texas, they are both interested in music - he has a splendid voice for singing and is taking voice training and does some solo singing in churches and various programs. Olive is taking piano and pipe organ lessons.

You must stop and see us sometime.

Olive and I united with the Presbyterian Church here, as a young man Ed was very active in the Presbyterian church in Houston and did some preaching - but something interrupted his faith - partly by an instructor in the Rice Institute, I am in hopes now he is coming back - he has a charming personality and would have much influence in religious work.

I really enjoy living in Ark. and the milder winters we have here.

My sister-in-law Florence Masters has been home on furlough from India and expects to leave soon from West coast to return to her work, while home she did much speaking and finished some work at Drake, writing thesis on Indias untouchables I believe, and received her Masters Degree.

Best Wishes to you and all your family for Christmas and the New Year. From Edna M.

Dear Kirby:

We are in the midst of plans for the 1947 summer Institutes of International Relations which are sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee. I am enclosing a list of the places and dates of our institutes for this coming summer for your information. Within the next couple of weeks our staff from different parts of the United States will assemble here in the Philadelphia area for consultation. At that time I would like to be able to tell them whether or not you might be available to speak at one or more of our institutes this coming summer. Definite invitations would need to come from our staff and committees in the field but if we could have word from you now about your availability we would be grateful.

In the important educational effort which we have underway on a nationwide basis it would be a tremendous help if we could have the benefit of your leadership. We are prepared, of course, to cover your travel expenses and to pay you an honorarium which can be worked out in detail if and when you are going to be available.

Ever sincerely,

My dear Kirby;

Excuse the familiarity but that is the way I always hear you referred to.

Two weeks ago to night I heard you at the Methodist Church: Speaking on Russia..

You have the unusual power of making things clear and understandable. I like your line of reasoning and also the spirit in which you manifest it. And I agree with your conclusions 100%. I wish all the people in our country could hear your message.

A day or two ago I took occasion to congratulate Henry Waller upon his new job and told him of your address giving him an outline of the same. I suggested he should have you write it up for the New Republic. I hope he takes kindly to my suggestion.

It ought to get in several magazines.

I am the John Porter who used to meet you at the Central Methodist Church in Detroit.

I have retired from the school business and have been spending a couple of years in California.
Expect to return to Detroit in the Spring.

You are doing a grand work and I hope you have many more years to continue in it.

Very sincerely

Christmas
Greetings

Storrs, Conn.
Christmas 1946

Dear Friends:

Again we greet you, wherever you are, reaching out in a special kind of remembrance and wishing for you all the best blessings of this blessed season.

Now we are four! This past summer a little brother joined us, and this Christmas Eve there are four stockings hung by our chimney. The laddie's name is Scott. He is now ten months old and a bouncing boy of 20 pounds. Blond, blue eyes, good disposition, and a favorite with his sister. Karen, now  $2\frac{1}{2}$  years old, is already quite a young lady, and a continual surprise and joy to her parents. We need not tell most of you what two lively youngsters can do to a house -- and for a home. It is a good thing that Louise could step out of her YWCA-USO job in June, for she is kept pretty busy right here. She spent the summer at home with the children, working on her rock garden, canning produce from Paul's garden, and generally catching up on the distaff side. Despite all this, Louise finds time and energy to carry various volunteer jobs with the Student Christian Movement, National YWCA, League of Women Voters, Church, etc.

Paul is also busy. During the summer he spent several weeks in New Haven working on his dissertation. He took his first airplane trip when he flew to New Orleans and back to investigate a new job. The University here has nearly doubled its enrollment in a year, so the classes are too many and too large. But this does mean a modest expansion in Paul's work in Religion, and he is eager to get this program well established. He also finds time for occasional conferences, speeches, and various local projects on campus and in community. His present teaching load and sharing the responsibility for two cherubs does not help much toward scholarly productivity, so Paul has applied for a leave of absence next semester in the hope that he may finish his thesis.

With auto travel restored, Storrs is not quite so isolated. And many good friends have come this way. Worthy of special mention was the visit of Paul's father and two brothers, Scott and Max. You too are invited and always welcome.

Christmas is in the heart--not in the tinsel and tumult. Then let every heart keep its Christmas. This year the words of Heine, "My love, there is a tooth-ache in my heart" express the feeling of many folks everywhere. There is a tooth-ache in our heart for the oppressed and the weary and the hungry of all lands, yearning for the justice and peace and dignity of a new and fairer world. So our prayer and hope are that we all shall learn to use wisely the resources now at our disposal. For while the fear of another war haunts us, there is also a good chance of laying the foundations of a world which can yet become "the tabernacle of peace" -- a world in which children everywhere can grow up in love and trust and good will.

Our special Christmas wish is that you all may have love for the home, friends for the fire-side, wisdom for your work, the will to help, the courage to work and pray for peace, and the faith that never falters. God's peace be yours.

The Prootzes -- Paul, Louise, Karen, and Scott.

TERRITORY OF HAWAII

Sociology Dept.

Dec. 30, 1946

Mr. Kirby Page
P.O. Box 247
La Habra, Calif.

Dear Mr. Page:

It has been some time since I have had the happy opportunity of talking with you or of listening to you, and now this letter goes to you with many thoughts in mind.

To help you become quite caught up with me, I hasten to report that I am no longer at Santa Maria Junior College, but have been in Honolulu for nearly a year working as a research assistant in the Sociology Department of the University. Inbetween and around the edges, I am completing the work for my doctorate in Sociology.

You will be interested to know that there is quite an active F.O.R. group over here, under the very able direction of Dr. Gilbert Bowles. We have passed many pleasant and interesting evenings together. However, lately we have been beset with the gnawing belief that there are many, many people over here who not only are completely unaware of the ideology and the activities of pacifists, but that there are many people also who would become active participants in such a program were they to have a fuller understanding of real pacifism. Of the former, we are positive. Of the latter, we are more than passably convinced.

As we spoke of this the other evening, and considered ways in which we could bring this more closely to more people, your name came up. "Perhaps Kirby Page could find a few days to come to the Islands and speak to organized groups here." That was the happiest thought we produced that evening, and so I volunteered to write you, to explain our situation here, and to ask you if such an arrangement might be made.

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII

P. O. Box 18, HONOLULU 10

First, let me say that there are many groups here who would be interested -- more, I dare say, than you would be able to find time for. The University has an active forum group; there are many active church groups of many denominations; and ... well, I suppose your time is up already!

The racial division of the population here makes this a particularly interesting place in which to work. I suppose you are already thoroughly familiar with the pattern here, but in case these figures have slipped your mind, let me remind you that one third of the population is of Japanese extraction, one third of white extraction, and the remaining third somewhat unevenly divided between Chinese, Filipinos, Hawaiians, etc. This makes for a group not only needing, but apparently to date, extremely shy of much information concerning real principles of pacifism.

I am not in a position at present to suggest a sum that might be offered for such a trip, but am seeking to know, only, if you could find time to fit such a trip into your busy itinerary. The Honolulu Council of Churches has suggested, off the record, that they would be happy of an opportunity to support such a plan, and you may know, of course, that we, over here, would assume the expenses. Pan American planes fly daily, and at present, the flight across takes between 9 and 12 hours. If you indicate that such a plan might be feasible and that you might find a few days in which to work it in, we shall hasten to make final arrangements.

Needless to say, this goes with the earnest hope that you may be able to find time for such a proposal, and with my sincerest wishes for a New Year for you and yours that may fulfill all your expectations.

Cordially yours,

(Mrs.) Carolyn S. Peto

Dear Mr. Page:

You will find enclosed a postal money order for $2.00 in payment for the book, "Living Abundantly". I am also enclosing some stamps to pay the postage expense of sending the book.

Thank you for sending it. I have been reading from it, and it has been giving me a little spiritual boost which I have been needing. I am a thorough pacifist, and even though I am a minister in one of the "peace" churches, yet as you know, many of our people were not able to stand the war pressures, and I have therefore found myself quite lonely at times. We had a couple of young men who went to C. O. camps and I helped them all I could, yet most of the people in the communities where I minister have kept us rather aloof. They have been very friendly, and kind--but they just have not talked about the things which have been so very near my heart. It is therefore with pleasure that I read these pages of your book and commune with those who have carried the light before me.

My primary reason for writing you to ask about Verbeck of Japan was concerning information for a book which I wish to write sometime. I have been gathering material for several years, but my work as a pastor keeps me so busy that I haven't done too much on it yet. I want to write it from the angle of what I call "positive Pacifism." I believe the peace philosophy is the positive and realistic approach to personal and world problems; and that the militaristic approach is the unreal and negative. Perhaps one of these days I shall be able to get at it.

May I again express to you my appreciation for your work? I want to thank you again for sending the book. I shall read all of it.

Sincerely,

C. C. Beery.
